This course will provide participants with strategies to enhance formatting, emphasis, and critical item inclusion which generate reports that withstand internal reviews and external scrutiny.

At the conclusion of this course, participants will be able to achieve the following objectives from knowledge gained during instructional period:

- ✓ Consistently collect, organize and catalog field notes
- ✓ Use clear and specific details to describe physical environments
- ✓ Use clear and specific details to describe individual features and behaviors
- ✓ Recall and report event dialogue in chronological order
- ✓ Record critical event details including:
  - Physical Options
  - Weapon Options
  - Injuries
  - Medical Treatment

Documenting the Use of Force was developed for trainees, uniform patrol officers, instructors, first line supervisors and agency executives alike.

According to the American Bar Association, the average cost to defend a use of force civil action is $127,000.00. Individual and agency reports are primary exhibits used to determine case viability. No law enforcement professional trained by FORCE Concepts in Documenting the Use of Force has ever been named in a related civil matter.
